

Community Walk Leader Privacy Notice

1. How we use your personal data

We are committed to protecting your personal data.

The only data we collect from you is as submitted by you on the Community Walk Leader form

We will use your sensitive personal data (that is the data you completed at sections 2 (ethnic origin and disability)) for the purposes of performing our contract you are involved in as a Community Walk Leader or if we need to comply with a legal obligation. Our legal ground of processing this data is your explicit consent.

We will use your non-sensitive personal data to (i) register you as a volunteer, (ii) to manage our relationship with you, (iii) send you details of the Walk in the Community Project.

Our legal grounds for processing your data are in relation to points (i) to (iii) above are for performance of a contract with you.

We will not share your details with third parties for marketing purposes except with your express consent.

2. Disclosure of your personal data

We may have to share your personal data with (i) service providers who provide IT and system administration support, (ii) professional advisors including lawyers, bankers, auditors and insurers (iii) HMRC and other regulatory authorities (iv) third parties to whom fund our projects or (v) [to other professionals for the purposes of discussing your treatment

We require all of these third parties to whom we transfer your data to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. They are only allowed to process your personal data on our instructions.

3. Data security

We have put in place security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. We also limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know such data. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and are subject to a duty of confidentiality. We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breaches and will notify you and any applicable regulator where we are legally required to do so.

In certain circumstances you can ask us to delete your data. See the section entitled 'your rights' below for more information.

We may anonymise your personal data (so that you can no longer be identified from such data) for research or statistical purposes in which case we may use this information indefinitely without further notice to you.

4. Data retention

We will only keep your personal data for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes for which we collected it. We may retain your data to satisfy any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

You have the right to ask us to delete the personal data we hold about you in certain circumstances. See section 6 below.

5. Your rights

You are able to exercise certain rights in relation to your personal data that we process. These are set out in more detail at

<https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-the-general-data-protection-regulation-gdpr/individual-rights/>

In relation to a Subject Access Right request, you may request that we inform you of the data we hold about you and how we process it. We will not charge a fee for responding to this request unless your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive in which case we may charge a reasonable fee or decline to respond.

We will, in most cases, reply within one month of the date of the request unless your request is complex or you have made a large number of requests in which case we will notify you of any delay and will in any event reply within 3 months.

If you wish to make a Subject Access Request, please send the request to
